City Manager Anette Spickard Set to Transition to Sedona, Arizona

McCall, Idaho | January 24th - The City of McCall announces that City Manager Anette Spickard has decided to pursue a new chapter in her professional career by relocating to Sedona, Arizona. Her final day with the City of McCall has been confirmed for March 22nd.

Anette's decision stems from the exciting opportunity for career growth and the prospect of being closer to her daughters and grandchildren. Having served diligently since 2018, she has been an integral part of the city's progress, overseeing numerous projects and growth planning initiatives.

The City of McCall expresses its gratitude for Anette's dedicated service to the community. Mayor Bob Giles conveyed the sentiments of the City Council, stating, "We thank Anette for her contributions and wish her a successful career transition. She will be greatly missed by all who have had the privilege of working with her."

The recruitment planning process for a new City Manager is set to commence in February, with a comprehensive search to identify the most suitable candidate to continue the city's development.
