

Meet the Finalists for MCCALL HEAD GOLF PRO

The City Manager, Anette Spickard invites you to take part in the final step in the search for McCall's new Municipal Head Golf Professional. The two final candidates were vetted out of a competitive field of more than sixteen highly qualified applicants by a panel comprised of city administration, PGA Career Services, and the Golf Advisory Committee. The candidates will be participating in course tours, staff meetings and have their final interviews during their visit. Our golf community is an important piece in the decision process and you are encouraged to engage with the pros regarding their golf culture, philosophy and provide your feedback for consideration.

Join us Friday, Sept. 16th from 5pm to 6pm at the Banyans on the Green Tent.

Kyle Weeks

Kyle was elected to PGA membership in 2012. His career to date has included Assistant Professional at Terrace Lakes Resort and Head Professional at Eagle Hills Golf Course, before moving to Bend as First Assistant Professional at Bend Golf Club and Director of Instruction at Lost Tracks. It was this move where he quickly fell in love with coaching juniors and other eager golfers. Kyle returned to Eagle Hills as the Director of Golf in 2019 and continues to seek new and creative ways to expose more individuals to the game he loves. Kyle lives in Boise with his wife Lindsey, daughter Palmer and dog Bunker.

David DiMartino

David is a 20-year PGA Professional who specializes in cultivating teams, building vision and executing highly productive operations. He holds extensive experience in Municipalities, Golf Resorts and Private Clubs in Texas, Florida, Mexico, Colorado and Wisconsin. He's currently the GM at River Club of Mequon. Previously he worked with a few wonderful municipalities in Colorado including City of Aspen's Golf Club as Head Golf Professional. David's philosophy is to lead by example, build consensus, respect, and inclusivity while being a proactive champion for community needs. He's an avid adventurer that loves the outdoors whether golfing, cycling, skiing or just hanging out. David and his wife Lauren share a passion for the mountains and tight knit communities, while raising their daughter Alister. (Named after the famous golf architect Dr. Alister McKenzie.)

Headshot & Bio provided by applicants.

Friday | September 16th | Banyans on the Green Tent | 5pm to 6pm
925 Fairway Dr, McCall, ID 83638